

Fire
FREQUENCY

ELLEN ERCOLINI

WHO YOU ARE

You're visionary. Creative. Open hearted. Passionate. You love the beginnings of things and diversity in your work time. You are on the FIRE frequency!

Your fiery nature, optimism and attitude make you an excellent team member for getting everyone inspired and moving forward.

You can be a creative visionary, seeing possibility where others see obstacles.

NATURAL TALENTS

You have a strong presence, and what some people might not realize about you is you wear your heart on the outside. You can be incredibly vulnerable without other people noticing the depth of your feelings + experiences. This can be great because it enables you to deeply connect with your clients and have incredible conversations and experiences with them.

People tend to gravitate towards your light and warmth, and everyone feels like your new best friend.

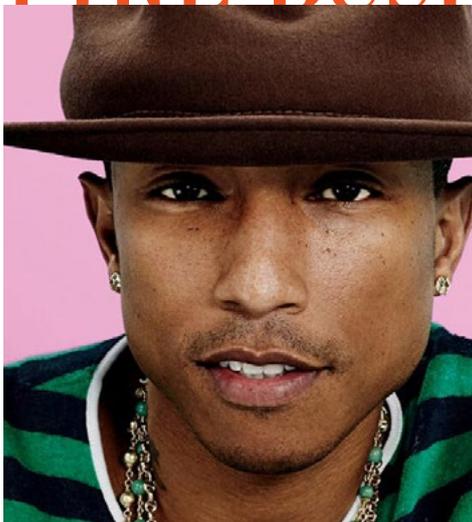

tools for business growth

You absolutely believe that life should be exciting, and you bring that belief into your business and personal life.

Routines bore you and you're constantly ready for a way to change it up and try new things - it makes total sense that you're an entrepreneur.

In general you enjoy attention, so a business with you in the limelight is going to work very well.

The fire frequency is all about being a creative visionary, and inspiring other people to make things happen. Fire frequency people can also soak up the spotlight, which feeds and energizes them instead of depleting them.

As you develop your business, understanding that you have these characteristics will be incredibly helpful to you.

Fire folks are good at a lot of things and love juggling them - they often have more than one project going at a time. These are people that see what's on the other side of the future, and punch holes in the universe to make it happen, as Pharrell clearly does.

things to watch out for

You might occasionally be called flighty or unrealistic, but those are the very qualities that let you chart a new course to make things happen. You're incredibly sensitive (hello open heart!) so other people's energy can affect you in some pretty big ways. Make sure you're staying true to yourself as you chart the course of your business.

Embrace your fiery passion and ability to move quickly from one thing to another as a gift. Burnout is always a few steps away because of your ability to just keep giving more. Pay close attention to that and take care of yourself when you start to feel burnout setting in - without YOU, nothing else happens. You have so much energy and passion to give, we want to make sure you're not giving all of it away.
